

2007 Sequence, Pinot Noir

Tasting Notes The 2007 vintage was a nearly perfect one for Pinot Noir in the Santa Cruz Mountains. After drought conditions during the winter with rainfall 40% below normal, spring began early and mild. Dry weather throughout spring allowed for a peaceful berry set. Summer was dry and warm, but without any sudden heat spikes. The crop was moderate to slightly below normal in size. High concentration and dry extract, but not overripe, and with sugar levels that generated moderate alcohol levels.

Source Our flagship 'Sequence' Pinot Noir is a blend of our very best estate Pinot Noir vineyard blocks from the shallow soils and steep slopes of the Santa Cruz Mountains. Strawberry and chocolate truffle notes blend seamlessly with earthy mushroom aromatics and dusty elegant tannins.

Aged 22 months on 75% new French oak.
